

Basic Detail Report

Title North side of State Street, Hartford.

Date 1908

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints on paper

Description Looking west on lower State Street, Hartford, at the north side of the street during the construction of the Bulkeley Bridge. Workmen are regrading and building a sidewalk. Businesses along the south side of the street include: A. Hoffman, cigar manufacturer; Tulin, Toft & Tulin, grocers; a lodging house and a public warehouse. Patrick Garvan Inc., paper dealers is visible on the north side of the street. There is a cart in the middle of the street with an umbrella that reads "Larkin Soaps." There are trolleys in the background, where State Street meets Main Street.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 7/8 x 9 13/16in. (20 x 25cm)