

Basic Detail Report

Title Old Phelps Tavern, Albany Turnpike, West Hartford

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photomechanical reproduction; printer's ink on paper

Description A man drives a horse-drawn wagon loaded with milk cans in the foreground. A second man holding a milk can stands beside the wagon. Both men wear hats. In the background is a two-story frame building with an addition at the right. A woman in a dark dress and three girls are on a porch at the right. The tree immediately behind the horse is leafless and possibly dead. Inscribed beneath image: "Old Phelps Tavern, Albany Turnpike, / west of Mountain Road."

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 2 3/4 x 3 15/16in. (7 x 10cm)