

Basic Detail Report

Title Fuller family in parlor, Hampton

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Three men and three women in an interior. The men have mustaches. One man plays a banjo. One of the women plays a piano. In the foreground, a table covered with a rug has books, ashtrays and a kerosene [?] lamp with a fringed shade on it. At the far left, a mantle has a clock and a vase of flowers on it. A cabinet in the corner has a mirror, a plate and a porcelain basket on it. At least two of the chairs have lace antimacassars on their backs. Framed pictures and a plate hang on the wall, which has patterned wallpaper on it.

Basic Detail Report

Patterned drapes and a fringed shade are at the window. A light fixture hangs from the ceiling.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 7 1/2 x 9 7/16in. (19 x 24cm)