

Basic Detail Report

Title Sketch of house on Albany Avenue

Date circa 1930

Medium graphite on tissue

Description Pencil sketch of an L-shaped stucco or brick house, affixed to a piece of craft paper. Writing indicates the house was located on Albany Avenue which is in West Hartford. When William J. Sheehan Jr.'s mother married James H. Kane, they moved to his home at 1954 Albany Avenue, which may be the house in the sketch. The drawing appears to have been the work of someone named Luce.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Height) 7 1/2 x (Width) 11 1/2in. (19.1 x 29.2cm)