Basic Detail Report

Title Beaded leather belt

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Walter Treadway Huntington

Medium suede, linen, cotton twill, plastic

Description Tan suede belt with sueded fringe along the bottom edge with four tear-drop shaped extensions equally placed along the length of the belt. The pendant pieces are edged in red cotton twill and decorated with colored beads in a sun or shield-shaped multicolored (blue, red, green, white, yellow, clear) wheel with a branching green and clear bead design above. Along the length of the belt are stitched groups of white, green, yellow and clear beads in a herring-bone design, with accent colors sprinkled along the length. The back of the belt is covered with appears to be linen. There are two twill "strings" tied together at one end of the belt. Worn by Walter, Mary or Clark Huntington of Windsor, Connecticut.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Length) 25 1/4 x (Height without fringe) 8 5 /8in. (64.1 x 21.9cm)