

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Hood

Date about 1860

Primary Maker Goodsell family

Medium Hand-stitched plain-woven wool with twill-woven wool binding and silk ribbon drawstring

Description Red wool flannel hood, with a triangular "scarf" falling over the head and a triangular shoulder cape. Self-fabric ties at the neckline. The hood is unlined, and all edges are trimmed with black twill-woven wool tape. The hood is adjustable by a black silk drawstring at the back of the neck. The head piece is shaped by gathering around a semicircular crown at the back of the head.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: 24 x 33in. (61 x 83.8cm)