Title Woman's Shoes

Date about 1810

Primary Maker Huldah Foote

Medium Hand-stitched leather, silk tape, linen, and leather

Description Pink kid leather slippers with a low Louis heel. The upper is bound with pale pink silk tape. They have a continuous leather sole. The interior is lined with plain-woven linen. The soles are straight, but the pattern of wear suggests that ".a" was worn on the left foot, and ".b" was worn on the right foot.
