Title Woman's Shoes

Date about 1865

Primary Maker Ann Frances Darling

Medium Machine- and hand-stitched leather, with cotton lining and silk binding

Description White kid leather slippers with square toe and square throatline. The slippers are decorated only with a small silk bow at the top of the throatline. The soles are flat. The quarters are lined with tan leather; the vamp is lined with white twill-woven cotton. The sock lining is tan leather. The throatline is bound with white silk tape. The slippers are straight, but the wear patterns indicate that slipper ".b" was worn on the right foot, and slipper ".a" was worn on the left.
