Title Man's Boots

Date about 1895

Primary Maker Dr. P. Kahler & Son

Medium Machine-stitched leather and cotton, with enameled metal buttons and metal tacks

Description Whole-foxed, ankle-high men's buttoned boots. The foxing is black patent leather, with a decorative V-shaped toe cap. The top is black leather with a dull finish. The button fly edge is smooth and laps to the outside of the foot, closing with six black enameled, dome-shaped, shank buttons. The toe shape is round, and the stacked heels are 3/4 inch high. The boot is lined with ecru twill-woven cotton, and the button side is lined with brown leather. A twill-woven tape loop inside the center back seam is provided to assist in pulling on the boot.
