

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Shoes

Date about 1934

Primary Maker Marie Mitchell Bosworth

Medium Machine-stitched silk and leather, with silk-covered wooden heels, with metal buckles and tacks

Description Gray ribbed silk shoes, with a T-strap. The vamp is designed with two narrow, concentric semicircles of silver-colored leather laid over an openwork geometric design. The rectangular buckle is set with six small paste diamonds. The toe shape is oval, and the high and narrow Louis heel is covered with the gray fabric. The shoe is lined with light gray leather.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 5 3/4 x 2 3/4 x 9 1/2in.
(14.6 x 7 x 24.1cm)