Title Woman's Rompers

Date 1990

Primary Maker Elizabeth Blakelock

Medium Machine-stitched cotton and plastic buttons

Description The fabric used to make these rompers is a plain-woven cotton, printed with a floral design in various shades of purple, blue, and green on a turquoise ground. This one-piece garment is sleeveless and has a 19 1/2-inch placket at the center front with eight 1/2-inch turquoise plastic buttons. The waistline, falling 15 3/4 inches from the top shoulder seams, is gathered. The full pant legs have a 22 1/2-inch inseam. At the ankle, they are gathered and finished with a 1 3/4-inch cuff. Two decorative patch pockets, roughly 7 x 6 3/4 inches, are found at the left and right front hips. The top of this garment, to the waistline, is lined in a white plain-woven cotton.
