Title Reticule

Date about 1800-1825

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Hand-stitched and embroidered cotton

Description Drawstring bag of white cotton, constructed with two side panels, approximately diamond-shaped, joined by a straight strip of fabric gathered to the edges so that the bag looks ruffled when laid flat. The drawstring is encased only at the top of the side panels. These diamond-shaped panels are embroidered with a scrolling swag design around the edges. One side has a cornucopia spilling out grapes and possibly hops; the other side has a floral spray tied with a bow. Embroidery stitches include French knots, outline, satin, and chain.
