Title Woman's Drawers

Date about 1900-1910

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with glass button, silk ribbon, and machine-made cotton lace

Description Woman's white cotton drawers. The waistline is smooth and there is no waistband. The drawers are open down the center back; they fasten with a single white glass button at the waistline. The legs are short and very full, with a wide flounce consisting of two layers of machine-made lace; the top layer is made by sewing four strips of lace together. The flounce is headed by a band of lace through which a pale blue silk ribbon is woven.
