

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Drawers

Date probably 1857-1858

Primary Maker Julia P. Rogers

Medium Hand-stitched cotton, with mother of pearl button

Description Woman's white cotton split drawers. The legs are gathered into the 1 5/8-inch-wide waistband, which has been lengthened by inserting a four-inch strip at center front. The drawers fasten at center back with a single mother of pearl button on the waistband. The legs are decorated with four narrow tucks and one wider tuck. An additional one-inch-wide tuck is coarsely stitched above the original tucks. Eyelet embroidery of a leaf and floral frond motif edges the leg openings.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length): 37in. (94cm)