Title The Preservation of the Charter

Date 1820-1840

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Drawing; black ink wash on wove paper in painted wooden frame

Description A man wearing a coat, hat, breeches, and hose kneels beside a large oak tree and inserts a rolled document into a hole at its base. A large house with a brick chimney is on a hill at the right. A rail fence is in the right foreground. A road in the left foreground leads towards additional frame buildings and bushes in the left background. The frame appears to be mid-nineteenth century, possibly contemporary with the drawing. It has mitered corners and a molding surrounding the image. It has been painted or stained a dark brown.
