

Basic Detail Report

Title Infant's Pinafore

Date 1844

Primary Maker Edwin H. Tomlinson

Medium Hand-stitched cotton

Description Infant's pinafore of cotton printed with a very small brown and white checkered pattern. The pinafore is cut in a long rectangle; the ends are folded towards the center back. Semicircular cuts in the folded edges create the armholes. A drawstring run through a casing along the top edge ties at center back. The edges of the center back opening are the selvages of the cloth, which is 26 inches wide.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 10 1/2 x 12 3/4in. (26.7 x 32.4 cm)