

Basic Detail Report

Title Maid's Uniform Cap

Date about 1920s-1950s

Primary Maker Tolles family

Medium Machine-stitched cotton and synthetic fiber

Description Maid's cap of sheer white cotton lawn. The cap is a double layer of narrow semi-circular shape, each edge trimmed with rickrack. A black ribbon of a synthetic fiber is threaded through slits at either end and is tied over the forehead and behind the head to hold the cap in place.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 2 3/4 x 10in. (7 x 25.4cm)