

Basic Detail Report

Title Miscellaneous Connecticut Subjects

Date 1930-1970

Primary Maker Arthur J. Kiely Jr.

Medium Photograph album; gelatin silver prints on paper mounted on wove paper in plastic sleeves in looseleaf binder with plastic-covered boards, metal spine and clasps

Description Album containing 22 gelatin silver prints of various subjects, including the Stanley-Whitman house in Farmington, the 1955 Flood in Waterbury, the introduction of the JT 90 engine at Pratt & Whitney aircraft in the 1960s, views of Main Street, Hartford, the Heublein Hotel, Travelers tower, the Charter Oak Bridge under construction, Hartford Public High School being demolished, the St. Joseph's Cathedral fire, Mystic Seaport, and the enclosure of the Park River. One photograph shows Lyndon B. Johnson and Mim D'Adario in Hartford with a WTIC cameraman at the right. Another shows Admiral Hiram G. Rickover receiving a Colt revolver.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (album height x width x depth): 11 3/4 x 10 1/2 x 1 1/2in. (29.8 x 26.7 x 3.8cm)