

Basic Detail Report

Title Jackie Bouvier Kennedy at Miss Porter's School

Date 1944-1947

Primary Maker Jacqueline Lee Bouvier

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints on heavy paper

Description A group of photographs taken of Jacqueline (Jackie) Bouvier

Kennedy Onassis while at Miss Porter's School in Farmington. They include:

Jackie with another student seated on a bench holding small stuffed animal toys and a soda bottle, with a box camera on the bench; a group of girls standing on what appears to be a stage, holding short batons with ribbons tied onto them; several girls dressed in shorts and shirts, possibly for gym class, standing on a field, possibly a baseball or softball field, with a building in the background; several pictures of girls wearing riding clothes, including jodhpurs, jackets, and helmets, standing with and riding horses; two pictures of a large group of girls, all appearing to be wearing similar outfits, probably class pictures; a group of girls wearing more formal dresses standing on a stage with a piano, with an audience in the foreground; and a formal studio portrait proof of Jackie, probably for a class picture.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 7 1/2 x 9 7/16in. (19.1 x 24cm) Sheet (height x width): 7 15/16 x 9 15/16in. (20.2 x 25.2cm)