

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of Hartford

Date 2002-2003

Primary Maker Kevin M. Doyle

Medium Digital imaging; digital prints from ink-jet color printer on Epson paper

Description Views in and around the city of Hartford, including: demolition of a building near site of new convention center, showing rubble and steel girders; an A-10 "Warthog" Connecticut Air National Guard jet plane on a runway; skylines of the city in the daytime and nighttime from different angles, including from Bushnell Park; several views of Constitution Plaza showing bushes and trees, including views at night showing lights on trees and lit fountain; the Life Star helicopter in flight; broken windows in an unknown brick building with ivy; interior of St. Joseph's Cathedral; pigeons on a brick sidewalk; steel sculpture in the pond in Bushnell Park; winter and fall scenes of Connecticut State Library and Supreme Court building; view of the interior of an unknown restaurant with tables set with tableclothes, glassware, and plates; night views of Center Church and a detail of the steeple during daytime; various close-up views of skyscrapers; and the State Capitol building in Bushnell Park with snow on the ground. The Phoenix Insurance building is visible in the background of several images, also the Travelers Insurance Tower, and the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 6 7/8 x 10 5/16in. (17.5 x 26.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 8 1/2 x 11in. (21.6 x 27.9cm)