Description A marble monument consisting of a high rectangular base surmounted by an ornate egg-shaped urn or lamp is situated in a cemetery, at the base of a weeping willow tree. The tree, at the far left, arches over the central monument. Other gravestones lean to the left or right. Roses grow in the right foreground and to the left of the central monument. A church with a tall steeple and a second willow tree are in the right background. Trees and hills are in the distance.
