Description A four-story brownstone Italianate hotel building, with storefronts on the ground floor, is located on a street corner. The building has quoins at the corners of the projecting center bays, a heavy cornice, and cast iron balconies on the second floor. An American flag flies from the roof. Signs above the shops read: "G.G. CARMAN." "ALLEN & RATHBUN APOTHECARIES DRUGS, MEDICINES, AND CHEMICALS." Men and women walk on the sidewalks and look in the shop windows. A man with a suitcase is entering the arched doorway at the left.

Horse-drawn vehicles are in the street. These include an open carriage drawn by two horse, a horse-drawn omnibus with signs that read "RAILROAD DEPOT & STATE HOUSE" and "CLAPP & SHARP" and a freight wagon with a sign that reads "ADAMS & CO'S EXPRESS." A dog is following the wagon. A man and woman on horseback are at the far left. Trees are in the background.
