

Basic Detail Report

Title Twigg Family Vacation

Date early 20th century

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; silver gelatin prints on paper, mounted on black paper glued in album with heavy paper covers decorated with paint

Description Album containing photographs of men, women, and children associated with the Ernest and Sophie Twigg family on what appears to be a group outing or vacation with scenic views near a reservoir or lake. The people are posing outdoors near signs, bridges, fences, streambeds, a dam and a farmstead with a five-bay Colonial house and barns. In one image, a young man is sitting on a rock which is, in part, inscribed "LET THE DURAND[?] / DEVELOP YOUR FILM. 10 (cents) / 9- CHESTNUT ST." The front cover of the photograph album cover has a painted design of flowers and leaves.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 2 1/2 x 4in. (6.4 x 10.2 cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 2 3/4 x 4 1/2in. (7 x 11.4cm) or smaller

Mount (height x width x depth): 5 1/2 x 7in. (14 x 17.8cm)