Title Civic Center Roof Collapse

Date 1978

Primary Maker The Hartford Courant

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description View from an elevated position of a large building with a large square hole in the roof, where a portion of the roof has collapsed. Debris, twisted girders, and snow are in the hole. Tall brick and masonry buildings line the city streets. Elevated highway ramps are in the right background. Bushnell Park, Soldiers and Sailors Arch, and a multi-story hotel building with the word "HILTON" on the roof are in the left background. Snow is on the ground.
