Title Cameos

Date 1911

Primary Maker The Hartford Faience Co.

Medium Cast white and blue porcelain

Description Two round cameos made of a light blue porcelain background with white porcelain relief decoration. The relief decoration consists of two women dressed in clingy, Grecian-inspired costume to the left. They are leaning toward the right, looking at a small boy with wings who is sitting on a rock. The boy holds a bow in his left hand and an arrow in his right hand. One of the women is leaning forward to touch the tip of the arrow. The back of both cameos is smooth, and bears the inscription "'Hartford"/ 1911". Cameo (.3): This cameo has an imperfection to the left of the relief decoration, that appears to be a bubble that came through the porcelain during the manufacturing process. There is a chip on the rim to the right of the scene. Cameo (.4): This cameo has three chips in the rim: one above, one to the lower left, and one to the lower right of the relief decoration. Several small bubbles, formed during the manufacturing process, are visible in the surface of the blue porcelain.
