

Basic Detail Report

Title Cigarette Holder or Pencil Holder

Date about 1935

Primary Maker Hawkinson Porcelain

Medium Mold-formed porcelain with a blue glaze

Description Porcelain cigarette holder or pencil holder with a deep blue glaze, reflecting the Art Deco and streamlined styles of the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s.

The foot of the holder is shaped like an "L" with two equal length "Arms" extending from the 90 degree angle; the arms of the holder are 1 1/2 inches wide. The holder is two inches tall and has thick dividers that separate the interior into four equally-shaped sections. The shape of each section is the same as the entire object, that of an "L" with two equal length "arms".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 2 x 3 x 3in. (5.1 x 7.6 x

7.6cm)