

Basic Detail Report

Title Flowerpot

Date about 1850-1880

Primary Maker Edwin Roberts

Medium Wheel-thrown redware

Description Small, tapered, unglazed, redware flowerpot, the smallest of a group of three graduated redware flowerpots. The flowerpot has a plain vertical rim, tapered, thin walls, and a flat bottom with a hole in the center. The flowerpot is not completely round at the rim. The redware has turned a dark brown. The residue from a rectangular sticker is adhered to one side of the flowerpot.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 2 3/8 x 2 7/8 x 2 5/8in.

(6 x 7.3 x 6.7cm)