

Basic Detail Report

Title Flowerpot Saucer

Date about 1850-1880

Primary Maker Edwin Roberts

Medium Wheel-thrown redware

Description Unglazed redware flowerpot saucer with a flat bottom and slightly flared side walls. The rim is about an inch tall, and it is thicker than the lower walls of the saucer. Small imperfections in the redware are visible on the interior and exterior of the saucer. There is a crack in the rim of the saucer that extends toward the center of the flowerpot. The crack begins with a chip, and there are two additional chips in the rim.
