Title Flowerpot

Date mid 19th century

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Wheel-thrown redware

Description Large, unglazed, redware flowerpot with a rolled rim, and tapered sides. The flowerpot has a flat bottom with a hole in the center, with three smaller holes evenly spaced around the central hole. Two pulled lug handles are applied on opposite sides immediately below the rim of the flowerpot; the handles are pressed against the flowerpot along their full length. The surface of the redware is pitted and discolored on the rim and the exterior. There are four large chips in the rim.
