

Basic Detail Report

Title Flowerpot

Date about 1850-1880

Primary Maker Edwin Roberts

Medium Wheel-thrown redware

Description Unglazed redware flowerpot with a thick rim, raised line below the rim, tapered sides, and a flat bottom with a hole in the center. To one side, beneath the raised line, is an impressed maker's mark, "EDWIN ROBERTS,/ HARTFORD, Conn." The surface of the redware is slightly discolored on the exterior, with variations in the shade of red, and a white discoloration over some areas near the bottom. There are several small chips in the rim, with two larger chips on the inside edge of the rim.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x diameter): 8 x 9 3/8in. (20.3 x 23.8cm)