

Basic Detail Report

Title Tile

Date about 1900

Primary Maker The Hartford Faience Co.

Medium Press-molded earthenware with a tan glaze

Description Square, earthenware tile with an opaque tan glaze applied to the top surface. Some of the glaze has dripped down the sides, although the ceramic is exposed on the lower sides and back of the tile. The back of the tile has an impressed rectangular area with the impressed word "HARTFORD" above a diamond and the word "FAIENCE" inside the diamond. There is some crazing on the glazed surface of the tile and seven chips along the glazed top edge.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 3/4 x 3 x 3in. (1.9 x 7.6 x 7.6cm)