

Basic Detail Report

Title Medicine Bottle

Date 1815-1835

Primary Maker Robert Turlington

Medium Mold-blown aquamarine glass

Description Mold-blown aquamarine glass medicine bottle with a flared rim, a cylindrical neck, a flattened body with a geometric violin shape, and a ring-shaped pontil mark and a shallow kick on the bottom. The medicine bottle has raised words that begin on the front with, "BY THE/ KINGS/ ROYAL/ PATENT/ GRANTED/ TO", and continue on the back with, "ROB'T/ TURLI/ NGTON/ FOR HIS/ INVENTED/ BALSAM/ OF LIFE". The left side indicates "LONDON" and the right side "JANY".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 2 3/8 x 1 3/8 x 7/8in. (6 x 3.5 x 2.2cm)