

A green glass bottle, likely for Scott's Emulsion, with the words 'SCOTT'S' and 'EMULSION' embossed vertically on its sides. The bottle has a tapered neck and a small, dark, cylindrical cap. The glass is a translucent green color, and the embossed text is in a serif font. The bottle is shown against a plain, light-colored background.

Basic Detail Report

Title Bitters Bottle

Date 1850-1875

Primary Maker Udolfo Wolfe

Medium Mold-blown olive green glass

Description Bitters bottle made of mold-blown olive green glass, with an inverted conical rim, a cylindrical neck, square sloping shoulders, a square body with canted corners, and a flat bottom edge with a medium kick in the center.

There is raised lettering on three of the four sides of the bitters bottle, reading, "UDOLPHOWOLFE'S// SCHIEDAM// AROMATIC/ SCHNAPPS". There are many small air bubbles in the glass. Kick: An indentation in the bottom of a drinking glass, bottle, or other glass object.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 9 7/8 x 2 7/8 x 2 7/8in.
(25.1 x 7.3 x 7.3cm)