

Basic Detail Report

Title Dish

Date early 20th century

Medium Mold-formed porcelain with gold and polychrome overglaze printed decoration

Description Small, porcelain dish in the shape of an oval. The edges are scalloped and are curved up. There are applied gold decorations around the interior sides of the dish, and a yellow glaze around the rim. There is a polychrome overglaze printed scene at the center of the dish. The scene is titled below, "WADSWORTH ATHENEUM, HARTFORD, CONN." It shows a Gothic-style stone building with square towers, parapets, and crenellations. In the foreground are a tree, sidewalk and street.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 1 1/4 x 6 3/8 x 4 1/2in.

(3.2 x 16.2 x 11.4cm)