

Basic Detail Report

Title Postcards

Date late 20th century

Primary Maker Ken DiMauro

Medium Photomechanical prints; color printers' inks on postcards

Description Views, mostly of modern Connecticut buildings and businesses, include St. Andrew's Church in Colchester, East Hartford High School and Founders Plaza in East Hartford, the Tre Kronor Scandinavian Gift Shop in Farmington, Pickwick Arms Hotel in Greenwich, Constitution Plaza and the Civic Center in Hartford, St. Stanislaus Church in Meriden, Les Shaw's Restaurant in New Haven, the American Radio Relay League in Newington, Southington High School, Southington Memorial Hospital, Southington Town Hall, Bradley Memorial Hospital in Southington, the First Presbyterian Church in Stamford, West Haven City Hall, West Haven Town Hall Other subjects include a dolphin show at the Mystic Marinelife Aquarium, the Simsbury Methodist Church, the First Congregational Church and Civil War monument in Southington, and an interchange on the Wilbur Cross Parkway. One card shows the Stephen Fitch house at Old Sturbridge Village in Sturbridge, MA. The house was originally built in Windham, CT.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 4 x 5 7/8in. (10.2 x 14.9 cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 4 x 5 7/8in. (10.2 x 14.9cm) or smaller