

Basic Detail Report

Title Sign for Crofut's Inn

Date before 1892

Medium Paint, probably pine board and moldings, iron hardware

Description Images: On both sides, rebus with a crow in a tree and a foot suspended from the sky, above a house. Text: On both sides, "'s" to the right of the foot, and "INN" on the roof of the porch of the house. Construction: Two boards, grain oriented horizontally, joined with a tongue-and-groove joint.

Signboard is set within grooves of applied moldings, which are nailed to the edges and mitered at corners. Separate cove molding strips are applied to the inside recess between the signboard and frame, holding the signboard in place.

No structural frame, no pediment or skirt.
