Title Map of Connecticut Showing the Work Done, Under Construction and Proposed by the State Highway Department

Date 1916

Primary Maker Connecticut State Highway Department

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink on paper

Description Map of Connecticut, with Massachusetts to the north, Rhode Island to the east, the Long Island Sound to the south, and New York to the west. The state is divided into towns, all of which are labeled, and depicts the state highway system. There are different lines representing completed trunk lines, incomplete trunk lines or those that run through cities, to-be-abandoned trunk lines on the old highway system, and proposed additions to the trunk line system. Many of the roads are marked with a letter and a number, which are explained in the key below.
