

Basic Detail Report

Title Copy of Map of the City of Hartford made by Solomon Porter in 1790

Date 1894

Primary Maker Theodore G. Ellis

Medium Drawing; pencil, black ink and watercolor on fabric

Description Manuscript map of Hartford, Connecticut, extending from the "North Line of the City" to the north, to the Connecticut River to the east, to the south green to the south, and the Little or Mill River to the west. Local businesses, residences and public spaces are included on the map, along with information about encroachments. Many of the streets have on them broken or dotted lines of measurement in degrees. A four-point compass rose and scale are in the lower right corner of the map.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 52 3/4 x 42 1/2in. (134 x 108cm) Sheet (height x width): 57 3/4 x 43in. (146.7 x 109.2cm)