Title Map of Woodstock, Connecticut

Date 1883

Primary Maker John S. Lester

Medium Heliotype; black and red printer's inks on wove paper, lined with linen

Description Map of Woodstock, Connecticut, from the border of Massachusetts to the north, Putnam and Thompson to the east, Eastford and Pomfret to the south, and Union and Eastford to the west. The map primarily shows the local hills, conveyed with hachure marks and labeled in red. Also in red are historical names and dates related to buildings and landowners. The town is divided into seventeen sections, divided by broken solid lines. Roads are denoted with solid parallel lines and some of them are labeled. Buildings, probably mostly houses, are indicated with solid black squares and the owner's name if known.
