denoted in green. Highways and unpaved roads, ski areas, summer camps, camping areas and properties belonging to the Nature Conservancy are also included. The legend, to the bottom left of the map, explains the lines and

vignettes depicting the Salisbury Town Hall, Gay-Hoyt House, the West Cornwall covered bridge, the Sloane-Stanley Museum, the Kent Memorial Library, the New Milford band stand, the Washington Congregational Church, the Hitchcock Chair

Factory, an example of a turnpike sign, a sketch of the stone walls that line the area, the 1781 mileage marker in Litchfield, the Litchfield Law School, and the Glebe House. On the verso is a directory of advertisers.
