

Basic Detail Report

Title Part of the City of Middletown

Date 1874

Primary Maker F. W. Beers & Co.

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of part of Middletown, Connecticut, depicting the portion of the city west of the Connecticut River, between Johnson Street and Bridge Street.

Griffins Trotting Park, colored green, is located to the north, along the New Haven, Hartford and Springfield Railroad line. Three cemeteries, a convent, and an academy are depicted, also colored green. At the bottom right is the Connecticut Valley Railroad. The map also depicts local roads and land lots, labeled with the owner's name and rectangles indicating the existence of buildings.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 14 1/4 x 22 3/4in. (36.2 x 57.8cm) Sheet (height x width): 15 x 23 3/8in. (38.1 x 59.4cm)