

Basic Detail Report

Title Streets and lots below State Street, Hartford, Connecticut

Date Possibly 1800

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Drawing; brown ink on wove paper

Description Manuscript map of part of the Connecticut River waterfront in Hartford, Connecticut. The streets are lined with land lots, which are labeled with the owner's name or a description of the building that stood there ("blue house"). The lots contain geographic coordinates and distance measurements in links and feet. Streets include Front Street, Ferry Street, State Street, Water Street, the "Highway called the Grove" (Grove Street), and the "highway runs north" (Commerce Street?). Property owners include Watkinson, Perkins, Bull, Ware & Brown, and Benslow or Denslow. Also shown are the Hart store, Colt's store, and market lots.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 25 1/4 x 20 1/2in. (64.1 x 52.1cm) Sheet (height x width): 25 1/4 x 20 1/2in. (64.1 x 52.1cm)