Title A Map of the Yearly Meeting of Friends for New England

Date 1850

Primary Maker George G. Smith

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink on wove paper

Description Map of the New England states along the Atlantic coast, minus Vermont, northern Maine, and Connecticut and Massachusetts west of the Connecticut River. The map shows the locations of the different Quaker meetings held throughout the year, including the yearly meeting, which was held in Newport, Rhode Island. Circles are used to denote the locations of cities that hold quarterly meetings, monthly meetings, preparation meetings and meetings for worship; squares are used to denote towns that do not hold Quaker meetings of any kind.
