Date 1835

Primary Maker Samuel Augustus Mitchell

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper, in cardboard covers

Description Map of part of Wisconsin Territory, part of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, with Lakes Michigan, Huron and Erie at the top. Pennsylvania and Virginia form the eastern boundary, with Kentucky to the south and Missouri and Wisconsin Territories to the west. The states and Wisconsin Territory are divided into counties, colored yellow, peach, pink, blue, or green. Roads, canals and railroads are marked with different lines and colors. The Wabash and Erie Canal, the Ohio Canal and an unnamed canal that appears to be part of the Miami and Erie Canal are shown. Two unnamed railroads in Ohio are depicted, as well. Physical features include the lakes and rivers. On the left side of the sheet is a list of steamboat routes. At the bottom are inset maps of the lead region east of the Mississippi River, the falls of Ohio, and the vicinity of Cincinnati. In the top right is an inset map of the vicinity of Detroit. The inside cover contains population information for Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan Territory.
