Description A one-and-a-half-story wood-frame bungalow house on a residential street has a front porch running along in front of the entire first floor. The house sits on a rise, and cement stairs lead down to a sidewalk running in front of the house. The number "691" appears on the top steps of the stairs which lead from the ground up to the front porch. There is a one car detached garage in back of the house. Other houses are in the background. Two people look out from a second story window from a house in back of the bungalow.
