

Basic Detail Report

Title Map of the Town of Torrington, Litchfield, County, Connecticut

Date 1852

Primary Maker John Houston

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper mounted on fabric

Description Map of Torrington, Connecticut, with Winchester to the north, New Hartford to the east, Harwinton and Litchfield to the south, and Goshen to the west. The Naugatuck River, the East Branch River, and an unnamed lake are colored blue. Other rivers and streams are shown. Elevation is indicated by hachure marks. Roads, including turnpikes and turnpike gates are shown and locations of buildings are indicated with names of property owners. The villages of Wolcottville, Torrington, Torrington Hollow, Torringtonford, Newfield, Daytonville, and Burrville are shown. The Naugatuck Railroad runs through Wolcottville, Daytonville, and Burrville. A separate inset map provides additional detail for Wolcottville village. Vignettes at top and bottom depict the Union Manufacturing Company, Wolcottville Knitting Company, Wadham's Manufacturing Company, Alvord Carriage Manufacturing Company, A. & J. Dayton's Organ Manufactory, and the residences of Wadhams, James H. Tuttle, Milo Burr, Henry Colt, Daniel Robertson, and Leverett Tuttle.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 32 5/8 x 43 3/8in. (82.9 x 110.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 35 1/4 x 46 1/4in. (89.5 x 117.5cm)