Title Cheney Boathouse in Marlborough, CT

Date probably about 1895

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of the Cheney boathouse sitting amidst trees on the edge of Marlboro Pond (Lake Terramuggus). Both doors of the boathouse sit wide open and a ramp leads down into the water. The inside of the boathouse is mostly empty, but there is a broom leaning against the right wall. At the foot of the ramp a canoe floats amidst some reeds. There are two women sitting in the canoe. The one on the left reaches down into the water with her right hand.
