Title Victory Garden at Frank Dexter Cheney House

Date about 1917

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of a large garden in front of Frank Dexter Cheney's three story house. The plants in the garden have lots of leaves and are growing close together. The house has a portico, and there are a few pieces of outdoor furniture sitting on the porch. Large trees surround the house. There is a narrow dirt path to the right of the garden that appears to lead up to the front of the house.
