Title Interior of an Unidentified House

Date about 1900

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description Interior view of an unidentified home. The walls are bare and wooden. There is a telephone hanging on the wall to the right. In the middle of the view is a door, with a metal handle. A pine branch hangs over the lintel. To the left is a brick fireplace that has a kettle hanging in it. A chair sits in front of the fireplace. There are assorted knick-knacks on the mantelpiece. Up above it hang two dead birds with their wings spread out. There is a potted plant on the mantle, another next to the door, and a third on a table under the telephone.
