

Basic Detail Report

Title Soldiers' Homecoming Parade in South Manchester

Date 1919

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of a street in South Manchester during a parade celebrating the homecoming of soldiers after World War I. Crowds of people line both sides of the street while men in uniform march down the middle. The three story building on the far side of the street has signs reading "C. H. TRYON", "NEW HAVEN DAIRY / 'QUALITY ICE CREAM'", "CONNECTICUT BUSINESS COLLEGE" and "PACKARD'S PHARMACY". The windows on the first floor are decorated with patriotic bunting. People watch the parade from the upper windows.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 4 1/8 × 3 1/8in. (10.5 × 7.9cm)

Sheet (height x width): 4 9/16 × 3 3/8in. (11.6 × 8.6cm)